DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-5, 7-11, and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bogaczyk (4557407) in view of Stocchiero (6264076).

Bogaczyk teaches a mechanism (Figure 1) comprising a hook and a plurality of mechanisms having pairs of substantially horizontally disposed rods which define between them a slot for removably receiving an article for being hung. While Bogaczyk essentially teaches the invention as discussed, he fails to specifically teach resilient, deflectable elements to maintain an article, yet not impart an impression thereto, which Stocchiero teaches (detail 4). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to utilize such elements, so as to prevent wrinkles, yet maintain enough friction upon the article.

4. Claims 6, 12, and 16-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bogaczyk in view of Stocchiero as applied to claims 1-5, 7-11, and 13-15 above, and further in view of Ho (6021934).

The combination of Bogaczyk in view of Stocchiero essentially teaches the invention as disclosed above, but fails to specifically teach brush fibers, which Ho teaches. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to utilize such fibers, so as to ensure protection at a relatively low price. Such fibers are easily obtainable and cheaply produced, insuring low production costs.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chen (6155467) and Gouldson (6467659) both teach what is well known in the art.
